Episcopal Diocese of Newark invited IDC's CEO Levent Koc to Annual Diocesan Convention to deliver a speech on "Interfaith Leadership in Divisive Times" on January 28th.

He started his speech with IDC video that briefs IDC's interfaith-intercultural activities. He then explained freedom of religion in Islam includiing freedom scholars of religion. After expaling of status of the people of the book in Islam, he gave some examples of tolerance and living together from Muslim and Turkish history. He finally talked about possible neighborliness project between Turkish Community and Episcopelians.

IDC thanks Rev. Lisa Green, Ecumenical Officer, for arranging this lecture.

Pictures from the event:

Rev. Lisa Green, Ecumenical Officer