

ANT Bookstore & Cafe and Interfaith Dialogue Center of New Jersey proudly sponsor a book discussion series, Book Conversations, to be held in the ANT Bookstore every month. Book Conversations will feature books that represent genuine work and contribution to the diversity and intercultural understanding in the American society. Each program will feature a 20-minute reading from the book by the author followed by a question-answer session between the author and the participants.

The first of Book Conversations hosted Rev. Robert C. Morris on March 4th, 2010, at 7:00 pm. This session will feature Morris' work titled 'Wrestling with Grace: A Spirituality for the Rough Edges of Daily Life'.

It was a great evening, there were many guests who attended who asked many good questions. We Thank Rev C. Morris for attending and reading.

Pictures from the event below:

Photo by Marion Morris
March 4, 2010