

The last Abraham's Table Dialogue Luncheon this season was held at Congregation Beth Hatikvah at 36 Chatham Road Summit, NJ 07901 on Tuesday, June 17, 2008. Speakers discussed whether faith defines culture or culture defines faith.

Home-made vegetarian Turkish food was served before the presentation and Q&A followed the speeches.

All Abraham's Table Luncheons are open to public and free of charge.

Some pictures of the luncheon

The first of the two speakers is the President of the Catholic League, George Weigh, who is a professor of law at the University of Notre Dame. The second speaker is the President of the National Council on Human Relations, who is a professor of law at the University of Notre Dame.