

Thursday's Abraham's table at Princeton Seminary took place on May 6th at 12:00pm, three speakers; Rabbi Nancy Fuchs-Kreimer, Dr. Ingrid Mattson and Dr. Westina Mathews went up to speak about their views and shared stories about Women Covenant, there were many guests who had a great wonderful time listening to the speakers talk about their experiences and knowledge about the Women Covenant, Dr. Westina talked about her "One Seed" "all she had was her one seed", which was very entertaining to listen too, Dr. Ingrid Mattson talked about the women in Islam and their roles in it, also Rabbi Nancy Fuchs with a smile on her face the whole time shared some stories about her past as well as Women's Roles in Judaism.

People had many interesting questions to ask that the speakers happily answered. We all enjoyed some delicious Turkish food for lunch, which made it a great day.
