

Upcoming IDC Luncheon hosted Ms. Josephine Hernandez, President of NJ State Board of Education on Wednesday December 2, 2009. Ms. Josephine Hernandez will make a presentation on Preparing our children for future: Challenges of education.

Lunch will be served.

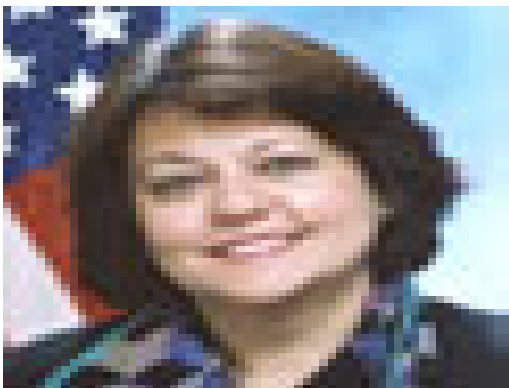

IDC Luncheons are free and open to public but RSVP is required. You can RSVP by replying this email or calling us at 973-353-9333

Venue:

17 Academy St. Suite 701
Newark, NJ 07102

Date: Wednesday December 2, 2009

Time: 12:00 noon

JOSEPHINE E. HERNANDEZ

President, New Jersey State Board of Education and Vice President, Passaic County Community College

Josephine Hernandez was appointed to State Board of Education in 2004, representing Union County. She served as president of Middle States Association of College Registrars and Officers of Admission from 2003 to 2004. She also served as vice president of board of directors of YWCA in Eastern Union County. She is member, National Community College Hispanic Council.

Josephine Hernandez was featured on Univision Channel 41 during Women's History Month in 2004. She is recipient of Unsung Champion Award CASA Community Organization, 2003. Josephine Hernandez holds a M.A., Rutgers University and earned B.A. at Inter American University, Magna Cum Laude

Josephine is proud parent of two children.

Pictures from Luccheon:

