

You are cordially invited to Turkish Festival in NY between Sept. 27 and Oct. 4.

The mission of the festival is to display the Turkic cultures with all its aspects, to inform and entertain the attendants and children, and serve as a scientific, artistic, and cultural resource.

New York Turkish Festival will have a broad content: Displays, artworks, craftworks, books, music, Turkish food, children's playground, Turkic folk dances and Ottoman Band, Turkish shadow theater, parade, and evening concert. Throughout the event there will be performances on the stage. Visitors will observe, watch, read material, see movies, participate in hands-on activities and experience a unique tradition.

Visit festival web site for more information