

IDC offers its deepest condolences to the loved ones of the innocent soldiers who lost their lives and who got wounded in the brutal attack at Fort Hood, Texas.

We condemn this violence. No ideology, political or religious, does ever justify or excuse such violence. No system could ever tolerate killing of the innocent fellows.

Our thoughts and prayers are with the victims, their families and with all who have been affected by this terrible tragedy. We ask God Almighty to give them solace and hope in these difficult days.
