

As we all have been informed, Osama bin Laden was finally killed by US forces. The attacks plotted by him and his followers on innocent people made millions suffer directly and indirectly over a decade.

In addition to people who lost their lives, their relatives who suffered and those who were affected on and after 9/11, beautiful teachings of Islam were stained and Muslims lived under suspicion worldwide. We pray that his death will be the beginning of a peaceful era and the end of extremism.
