

Observing a Middle Eastern tradition that celebrates the landing of Noah's ark, IDC and volunteers of IDC prepared a dessert called Noah's Pudding and served almost 1000 servings to their neighbors and friends on February 20, 2005 and following days.

Director and Program Coordinator of Dr. Levent Koc visited neighbor Churches and served Noah's Puddings. First Presbyteriarian Church, Carlstadt, was the first one we visited.

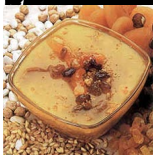

Pastor Donald Pitches and two members from the congregation of the church.

Pastor Donald Ritchie and lovely ladies from the congregation of the church.

Pastor Marc Tarantino and our director Levent Koc and some residents of Carlstadt.

As the sun sets, the Ashura is served. It is a special occasion for the community. The Ashura is made of rice, meat, and vegetables, and is served with a special sauce. It is a dish that is loved by many people.
