

IDC Central Jersey group visited the First Reformed Church, New Brunswick. IDC members served Noah's Pudding to the congregants. It was a friendly gathering that helped both sides to get to know each other more. IDC members invited them to break bread together in Ramadan as well.

Some pictures of the event:

