

IDC organized an Iftar Dinner -the breaking of the Ramadan fast- in Honor of Our Law Enforcement Community in NJ on Tuesday September 7, 2010 at Saddle Brook Marriott Hotel.

Dinner brought together top Law Enforcement Officials of NJ. Sheriff Leo P. McGuire, Bergen County served as the Master of Ceremonies of the program, and Mr. Michael B. Ward, SAC, FBI Newark and Mr. Robert A. Bianchi, Prosecutor, Morris County delivered keynote speeches.

There was a Turkish art exhibition before the program. Live sufi music concert by Amir Vahab and his group.

Friends from the law enforcement and members of Turkish American Community enjoyed fellowship as well as variety of appetizers from Turkish cuisine. Sultan's favorite was served as main dish.

Ebru TV was there to make the story of the program

Below are just some pictures from this wonderful gathering.

Sheriff Leo McGuire

Prosecutor Robert A. Bianchi

SAC Michael Ward

Keynoters and IDC CEO Levent group picture

It was a good turnout

Mr. Paul Fishman, US Attorney was one of the guests

Rabbi Friedman, Sheriff Hinkle, Sheriff Graham was also in attendance

Union County Prosecutor Ted Romankow said his remarks at the end

N.I. Homeland Security Director Charles McKenna said his impressions

William Spillane, Esq., President, Boardman, Bogert & Associates, LLP, and Assistant Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security, and other officials.

Some art pieces

Amir Vahab and his group gave a mini sufi music concert