

PII helps to make New Jersey a stronger and more prosperous place by advancing the causes of peace, cross-cultural tolerance, and human dignity. We publicly recognize the outstanding achievements of those who have distinguished themselves in their profession, community and service to New Jersey and humanity.

The awards are based on a variety of factors, including interfaith/intercultural involvement, community service, education, community educational involvements, professional and community honors, business and professional leadership, and educational honors.

PII Awards 2012 will be held on Sunday June 3rd at 5:30 pm.

Director, Jewish Community Relations Council of UJA Federation of Northern New Jersey