

A socially concerned organization, Peace Islands Institute organizes academic conferences in order not only bring together academics from different backgrounds but also try to find solutions to social problems facing our communities.